- (1) The definition of the term "Indigent person" adopted in the Madras rules has not been embodied in the Residents R.O.M.
- (2) The Concessions allowed to indigent persons in the C.M. Station, Bangalore are extended in the Residents R.O.M. to even Govt. Pensioners drawing a pension of not more than Rs 100 per mensem provided they are, in the opinion of the officer authorized to grant the Concession unable to proceed to the Institute at Coonoor at their own expense.

It may also be noted that the South Indian Railway Company have agreed to provide free passes to indigent persons & attendants sent to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor at Govt expense while the Madras & Southern Mahratta

HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

Notification

No. 14 dated Bangalore, the 14th February 1908.

The Hon'ble the Resident is pleased to issue the following rules regarding the grant, to Government servants and to indigent persons unconnected with the public service, in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, of concessions designed to enable them when bitten by a rabid animal to proceed without delay to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor for treatment.

CONCESSIONS TO GOVERNMENT SERVANTS.

I. Any Government servant who has been bitten by a rabid animal, and who is too poor to proceed to Coonoor at his own expense may, provided that he is drawing not more than Rs. 100 a month, be granted by the officer hereinafter authorised to grant the concession:

(i) his actual travelling expenses to Coonoor and back, namely, (a) a single fare each way by railway of the class by which he is entitled to travel on duty, (b) for journeys by road the actual cost of transit, not exceeding the amount admissible under rule. The expenses for the return journey will be paid to the patient at Coonoor, after the treatment has been undergone, by the Treasury Officer at that station on production of a discharge certificate from the Director of the Institute;

(ii) an advance of one month's pay

(iii) one month's casual leave, any leave required in excess being treated as privilege or sick leave.

II. Any Government servant who has a difficulty in finding at once the means to enable him to proceed to the Institute, and whose pay exceeds Rs. 100 but does not exceed Rs. 500 a month, may be granted an advance not exceeding the amount admissible under rule I (i) and may also be given the concessions specified in rule I (ii) and (iii).

III. A report of the despatch of every Government servant to the Institute at Coonoor for treatment should be made at once, by the officer who sanctions the concession, to the Director of the Institute at Coonoor, stating (a) the class to which the patient has been treated as belonging for the purpose of travelling allowance; and (b) the amount of travelling allowance (by rail or road) advanced.

IV. The Director's discharge certificate will be prepared in duplicate. One copy of it will be given to the patient and the other attached to the bill for the travelling allowance for the return journey which should be presented for payment at the Coonoor treasury. The patient will bring back with him the certificate from the Director of the Institute and produce it before the Collector and District Magistrate of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

V. The bill for travelling allowance for the return journey will be at the same rates as were allowed for the journey to the Institute and will also be supported by the original intimation received from the officer who is responsible for the original advance.

VI. All advances made to Government servants under rule II above will be recovered in three equal monthly instalments as provided in Article 137 (b) of the Civil Account Code.

CONCESSIONS TO INDIGENT PERSONS.

VII. Any indigent person unconnected with the public service or any Government pensioner drawing a pension of not more than Rs. 100 per mensem who is unable, in the opinion of the officer hereinafter authorized to grant the concession, to proceed to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor at his own expense, may be granted his actual travelling expenses to Coonoor and back, namely, (a) a single third class fare each way by railway, (b) for journeys by road the actual cost of transit, (c) maintenance allowance at the following daily rates:—

Europeans and Eurasians Re 1 during the journey and Rs. 2—8—0 during treatment; Natives 4 annas during the journey and 6 annas during treatment.

VIII. A third class pass or ticket from Bangalore to Coonoor and back by the shortest and cheapest route on the terms allowed by the Railway Company will be procured for the patient by the officer who despatches him to Coonoor.

IX. The patient may receive in advance the actual cost of transit for journeys by road, when necessary, and maintenance allowance for the period of his journey to Coonoor. He should also take with him to Coonoor and produce before the Director of the Institute a certificate signed by the officer despatching him that he has been sent to the Institute for treatment at the public expense.

X. The maintenance allowance of the patient while under treatment at Coonoor and for the period of the return journey and also, if necessary, the cost of transit for journeys by road on the return journey will be disbursed by the Treasury Officer at Coonoor, on production of a certificate from the Director of the Institute that the patient has been under treatment at the Institute.

XI. The Director's discharge certificate will be prepared in duplicate. One copy will be despatched by him to the officer responsible for the original advance and the other attached to the bill for travelling allowance for the return journey when presented for payment at the Coonoor treasury.

XII. The bill for travelling allowance for the return journey should be at the same rates as were allowed for the journey to the Institute and should also be supported by the intimation received from the officer responsible for the original advance.

XIII. Maintenance charges for the days spent at Coonoor and for the days of the return journey may be advanced on separate bills drawn by the Director who will certify thereon the days that the patient was under treatment or that he will be occupied in the journey.

XIV. Women, children under 16 years of age, and men who are, by reason of age or other sufficient cause, incapable of travelling alone, may be allowed an attendant to accompany them to the Institute at Coonoor. Any such attendant will be granted

(i) travelling expenses and maintenance allowance at the rate sanctioned for patients

(ii) wages, not exceeding four annas a day, in cases where the despatching officer is satisfied that the patient is unable to pay the daily expenses of the attendant. The charges of the attendant will be borne by the fund to which the charges on account of the patient are debited. Only one attendant may be sent at the public expense with each patient or patients of the same family.

XV. The despatch of each indigent person to Coonoor for treatment at the public expense will at once be reported to the Director of the Institute and to the President of the Municipal Commission. The report should state;

(a) the amount of travelling allowance (by rail or road) advanced, and

(b) the number of days for which and the rate at which maintenance allowance has been advanced.

GENERAL.

XVI. When any person is bitten by a rabid animal and is desirous of proceeding to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor but is unable to meet the expenses of the journey, he should appear before the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore, or, in his absence, before the Senior Assistant Surgeon of the Bowring Civil Hospital, who will after satisfying himself that the case is a fit one for treatment at a Pasteur Institute grant him a certificate accordingly.

Such person will thereupon without loss of time appear before the Collector and District Magistrate of the Station or in his absence before the Second Magistrate, who after satisfying himself that the patient is unable to proceed to the Pasteur Institute at his own expense and is deserving of help from public funds authorise him to proceed at once to the Institute at Coonoor and arrange for the grant of the concessions specified in rules I, II, VII and XIV, as the case may be.

XVII. The charges incurred in respect of the persons referred to in rules I and II will be debited to or advanced from the revenues of the Assigned Tract, as the case may be, while the expenditure incurred in respect of the persons falling under rules VII and XIV will be met from the funds of the Municipal Commission of the Civil and Military Station.

Simla, the 28th May 1908.

Sir,

In continuation of the Home Department letter No.814/780/781/782/783/784/785/786/787/788/789/790, dated the 31st July 1907, I am directed to forward for information a copy of a letter from the Agent, East Indian Railway Company, No.176-P/1338-00-P.A.I., dated the 4th February 1908, from which it will be seen that this Company has agreed to grant free third class return tickets to indigent persons travelling over the East Indian Railway on the production of a certificate signed by a gazetted officer that they are proceeding to the Pasteur Institute at Kasauli for anti-rabic treatment.

2. I am at the same time to request that the following may be substituted for paragraph 4 of the "Memorandum of information" of which a copy was forwarded with the Home Department letter, dated the 31st July 1907

"4. The North-Western Railway allows free third class tickets to natives of the poorer class and also to one attendant or relative accompanying children under 12 years of age proceeding to Kasauli for anti-rabic treatment or returning, from Kasauli after treatment, on production of a certificate signed by a medical officer not lower in rank than an assistant surgeon. Free third class return tickets are granted to indigent persons travelling over the East Indian Railway on production of a medical certificate signed by a gazetted officer that they are proceeding to the Pasteur Institute at Kasauli for treatment. Natives of the poorer class travelling to Kasauli for treatment are granted free third class tickets on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway on production of a certificate signed by a gazetted medical officer. The Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway grant third class return tickets for a single fare, and the South Indian Indian Railway Company free passes to indigent persons and attendants sent to the Coonoor Pasteur Institute by Government servants empowered in that behalf."

(3. I am also to request that (with the permission of the Bengal and United Provinces Punjab C.P. Central Provinces Lieutenant-Governor) the Agent, East Indian Railway Company, may be informed direct of the rules which the Government of /Bengal/the United Provinces/the Punjab/you/may draw up regarding the despatch of indigent patients to the Institute at Kasauli, and may be furnished with copies of the form of certificate which the Local Government/Administration may prescribe.)

I have, etc.,
